Re“Mark”able News

Week of January 22, 2023

And Jesus said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fish for people." Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

Matthew 4:19-20

Part of being a steward is leaving something behind. Maybe that ‘something’ is time, or money, or convenience, or maybe it’s prejudice or a sense of entitlement. We can’t expect to grow as stewards without leaving something behind.

“Come and See”

“What are you looking for”? What brings you to St. Mark’s? We are glad you are here! We have entered a new year and a new excitement for the future grows each day. Please continue to pray for St. Mark’s and the future of God’s work here. Please invite friends, family and neighbors to events or services, and donate. If you love St. Mark’s, please continue to give. We have so many options that there is no excuse to give generously. You can use check, cash, online direct from your bank account, or PayPal from our website www.stmarksmesa.org. If you have not filled out a giving pledge, please do so. It helps with our future plans. “What are you looking for”? Jesus is here.

John 1:38-39

When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi” (which translated means Teacher), “where are you staying?” 39He said to them, “Come and see.”

2023 Annual Meeting: The 2023 Annual Meeting will be held on Sunday, February 5th, during the 10AM service. There will only be one service that day!
